The long carefree days
of summer pass rapidly, and students anticipate the promise of a new beginning.

Time passes
quickly in the fall, and our memories are like the many-colored leaves.

Winter is a time of peace and hope, belonging and sharing experiences with friends and family

The last days of spring are filled with anticipation and sadness; students looking forward to exciting activities, and remembering past experiences

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven

a time to work
a time to play

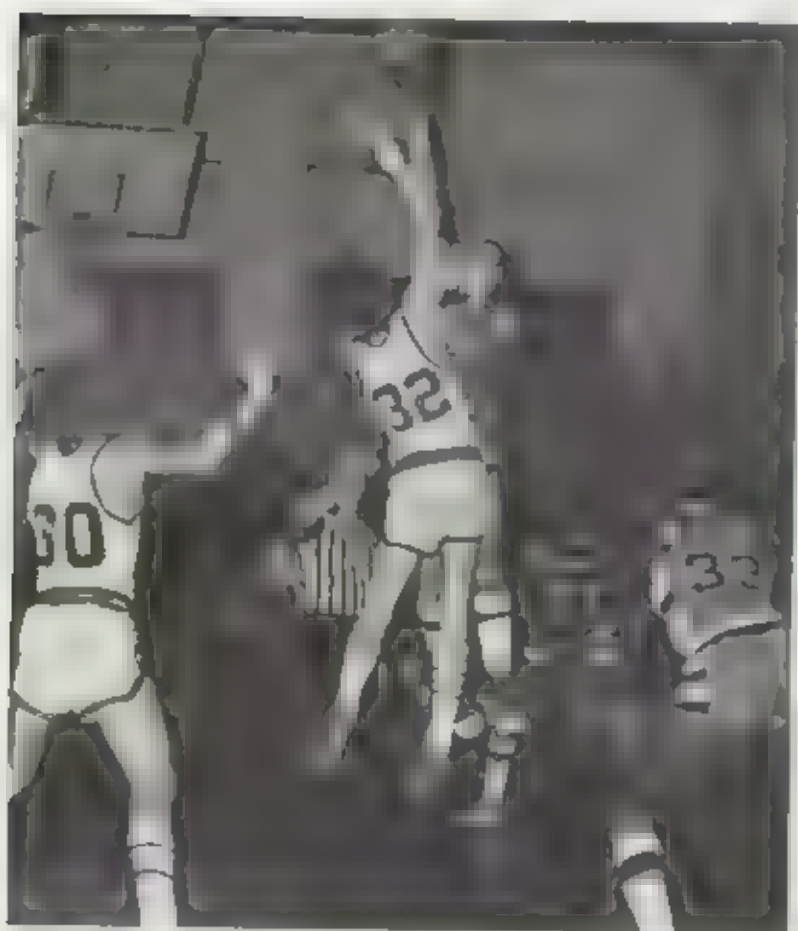

a time to think
a time to sleep

a time to practice
a time to perform

a time for victory
a time for defeat

a time for competition
a time for reflection

a time to create a time to tear down

a time to arrive
a time to depart

a time to explain
a time to understand

a time to be together
a time to be alone

a time to be happy
a time to be sad

a time to remember
a time to forget

A black and white photograph of a winter scene. The foreground is a snow-covered field with some faint tracks. In the middle ground, there is a dark, leafless tree on the left and a fence line running across the frame. The background is filled with more bare trees, their branches creating a complex web against a light sky. The word "WINTER" is printed in a serif font on the right side of the image.

GRADUATION BECOMES A REALITY

THROUGH THE SEASONS,

WE'LL CARRY OUR MEMORIES AND DREAMS

We, the Ephanian Staff, would like to thank everyone who helped us put the yearbook together, especially Mr. Davis and Mr. Guy. We'd also like to thank those businesses who placed advertisements in the Ephanian because without them we couldn't have published the book.

The purpose of the 1976 Ephanian was to capture the events of the year as they happened. We arranged the book in chronological order in hope that special times could be remembered vividly and clearly. We hope you will keep this yearbook as a collection of treasured memories.
